Unregistered 252: Glenn Diesen

I was joined by Glenn Diesen, a leading scholar of Russian foreign policy and geopolitics and one of a tiny few who oppose US and NATO support for Ukraine, to discuss the long history of Russophobia, the irrational fear and hatred of Russia that has driven western policies in Eurasia from the time of...

Unregistered 251: Jake Werner

As news came out that a Congressional committee recently simulated war with China, I sat down with Jake Werner, the chief China expert at the Quincy Institute for Responsible Statecraft, to examine his argument that the Chinese Communist Party poses no threat to Americans. Tickets on sale for the...

Unregistered 248: Norman Finkelstein

Since 2007, Norman Finkelstein has been blacklisted from academia and considered a pariah among the liberal establishment for his fierce criticism of the state of Israel and what he calls "the Holocaust industry." He joined me to discuss his new book, I'll Burn That Bridge When I Get To It, which is an...

Glenn Diesel
You are calling out propaganda, but some of what you claim is also propaganda.

The reality is that both Russia and the US are more

A different take on topics
It's hit of miss with his guests and topics, but the good ones are really interesting.

Woodhouse interview
I love it, a discussion on drug addiction, including fentanyl obviously, and this "expert", who's really just a run of the mill drug warrior, doesn't mention methadone, Suboxone or more
